

CDL Systems Limited Changing to Lockheed Martin Canada Inc.

Effective immediately CDL Systems Limited will change to Lockheed Martin Canada Inc.. Due to the volume of authorizations requiring amendments to reflect this change, the Management Director of DDTC is exercising the authority under 22 CFR 126.3 to waive the requirement for amendments to change currently approved authorizations.

All currently approved DSP authorizations identifying CDL Systems Limited will not require an amendment to reflect the change to Lockheed Martin Canada Inc.. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the currently approved license by the license holder.

Pending authorizations received by DDTC identifying CDL Systems Limited as a party to the license will be adjudicated without prejudice. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the approved license by the license holder.

New applications received after February 28, 2013 identifying CDL Systems Limited as a party to the license will be considered for return without action for correction to the new name.

A copy of this website notice must be maintained by the license holder and presented with the relevant license to Customs at time of shipment.

All currently approved agreements will require an amendment to be executed to reflect this name and address change. The agreement holder will be responsible for amending their agreement. The executed amendment will be treated as a minor amendment per 22 CFR 124.1(d) and must be submitted as such.

Pending agreement applications identifying CDL Systems Limited will be adjudicated without prejudice. With the filing of the executed agreement holder must attach a copy of this web notice as explanation for the name and address change in the executed agreement.
